PRETRIAL INSTRUCTIONS

1       A. PRETRIAL MOTIONS

2       1. All dispositive motions are heard no later than 120 days before trial, unless leave 3 of court is obtained for another deadline.

4       2. Only one summary judgment motion may be filed by each side, absent leave of 5 court. Leave of court may be sought if multiple parties comprise one or both sides. Leave of 6 court may be obtained by filing a motion for administrative relief pursuant to Civ. L. R. 7-11, 7 or by requesting a case management conference or informal telephone conference.

8       3. Separate statements of undisputed facts in support of or in opposition to motions
 9 for summary judgment shall NOT be filed. See Civil L. R. 56-2. The parties may file a truly 10 joint statement of undisputed facts only if all parties agree that the facts are undisputed.

11      4. Objections to evidence may no longer be filed separately but must be contained 12 within a brief or memorandum. Civil L. R. 7-3.

13      5. Each party filing or opposing a motion shall also serve and file a proposed order 14 which sets forth the relief or action sought and a short statement of the rationale of decision, 15 including citation of authority that the party requests the court to adopt.

16      6. Chambers copies of each electronically-filed document must include on each page 17 the running header created by the ECF system and must be delivered to the Clerk's Office by 18 noon the day following its filing. All documents must be stapled or bound by a two-pronged 19 fastener, and all exhibits to declarations or requests for judicial notice must be tabbed.

20      7. Footnotes in briefs appearing in smaller than the 12-point font required for the text, 21 will be stricken, see Civil L. R. 3-4(c)(2), as will footnotes that are so numerous as to be clearly 22 designed to defeat the page limits found at Civil L. R. 7-2 - 7-4.

23      8. Motions pursuant to Daubert v. Merrill Dow Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 509 U.S. 579
 24 (1993), challenging the reliability of expert testimony, may be noticed for hearing on the date
 25 dispositive motions will be heard or on any available hearing date up to and including the date 26 of the final pretrial conference. Irrespective of the hearing date, the briefs shall be filed in accordance with Civil L. R. 7-2 - 7-5, that is, on a 35-day briefing schedule.

27      9. Motions in limine are limited to motions to exclude specific items of evidence on 28 a ground and upon such authority as would be sufficient to sustain an objection to such 29 evidence at trial. The court will not generally consider a motion presenting a purely legal issue 30 in the guise of a motion in limine.

31      10. Discovery motions will be referred to a Magistrate Judge for resolution. The 32 words "Discovery Matter" shall appear in the caption of all documents relating to discovery to 33 insure proper routing.

34      11. Confidential and/or sealed documents shall be handled in accordance with this 35 court's standing order and Civil L.R. 79-5, both of which the parties shall consult before moving 36 for a protective order or requesting a sealing order. Requests to seal documents used in 37 conjunction with dispositive motions are rarely granted and then only upon a showing of the 38 most compelling of reasons.

1       B. FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

- 2           1. Each party shall attend personally or by counsel who will try the case.
- 3           2. Not less than 35 days prior to the pretrial conference, all counsel and/or parties shall meet and confer regarding preparation of the joint pretrial statement.
- 4           3. Not less than 28 days prior to the pretrial conference, counsel and/or parties shall:
- 5              a. Serve and file a joint pretrial statement. (Separately filed statements will not be accepted by the court and monetary sanctions will be imposed upon the party failing to cooperate in the preparation of a joint statement).
The pretrial statement shall include the following:
- 6                 (i) A brief description of the substance of the claims and defenses which remain to be decided.
- 7                 (ii) A detailed statement of all relief sought, itemizing all elements of damages claimed.
- 8                 (iii) A statement of all relevant undisputed facts to which the parties will stipulate for incorporation into the trial record without the necessity of supporting testimony or exhibits.
- 9                 (iv) A statement of all relevant disputed facts which remain to be decided.
- 10                 (v) A statement of stipulations requested or proposed.
- 11                 (vi) A brief statement of disputed points of law concerning liability and relief. Legal argument on these points shall be reserved for the trial briefs.
- 12                 (vii) A statement of whether bifurcation or a separate trial of specific issues is feasible and desired.
- 13                 (viii) A statement summarizing the status of settlement negotiations and indicating whether further negotiations are likely to be productive.
- 14              b. Serve and file trial briefs (not to exceed 25 pages), which shall specify each cause of action and defense remaining to be tried along with a statement of the applicable legal standard (no opposition shall be filed);
- 15              c. Serve and file no more than ten motions in limine, which shall be filed in one document not to exceed 25 pages;
- 16              d. Serve and file a list of deposition excerpts for witnesses who will not testify in person, (specifying the witness, page and line references) and other discovery responses that will be offered at trial;
- 17              e. Serve and file a list of all witnesses to be called at trial, in person or by deposition, other than solely for impeachment or rebuttal, with a brief statement describing the substance of the testimony to be given;
- 18              f. Serve and file a numerical list of exhibits that will be offered as evidence in a party's case in chief in support of a claim or defense, with a brief statement describing the substance and purpose of each exhibit and the name of the sponsoring witness;
- 19              g. Exchange exhibits which shall be premarked with an exhibit sticker (example attached), tabbed and in binders. Plaintiff shall use numbers (1, 2, 3, etc.) and defendant shall use numbers preceded by a letter (A-1, A-2,
A-3, etc.). Additional parties shall also use a letter preceding numbers (B-1, B-2, B-3, or C-1, C-2, C-3, etc.).

- 1        h. Submit two sets for jury trials and three sets for court trials of all 2              premarked exhibits to the Clerk's Office (exhibits are not filed);
3        i. Serve and file any request regarding the treatment of confidential or 4              sealed documents.
5        j. Serve and file proposed joint voir dire questions and joint jury instructions
6              for cases to be tried by jury;
7        k. Serve and file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law for cases
8              or claims to be tried by the court.
9        l. Serve and file a proposed verdict form which contains no reference to 10              submitting party.

11        4. No party shall be permitted to call any witness or offer any exhibit in its case in chief 12              that is not disclosed in these pretrial filings without leave of court and for good cause.

13        5. Not less than 14 days prior to the pretrial conference, counsel and/or parties shall 14              serve and file any opposition to a motion in limine and any counter deposition designations. No
15              replies shall be filed. All motions shall be heard at the pretrial conference unless otherwise 16              ordered. The parties shall not file separate objections, apart from those contained in the 17              motions in limine, to the opposing party's witness list, exhibit list or discovery designations.

18        C. JURY TRIAL

19        Jury Selection shall proceed as follows: The Jury Commissioner will summon 20 to 25 20              prospective jurors. The Courtroom Deputy will select their names at random and seat them in 21              the courtroom in the order in which their names are called. Voir dire will be conducted of 22              sufficient venire members so that six to eight will remain after all peremptory challenges and 23              an anticipated number of hardship dismissals and cause challenges have been made.

24        The court will then take cause challenges and discuss hardship claims at side bar. The court will inform counsel which hardship claims and cause challenges will be granted, but will 25              not announce those dismissals until the selection process is completed. Peremptory challenges
26              will be made in writing. The court will strike at one time those with meritorious hardship claims, 27              those excused for cause, and those challenged peremptorily, and then seat the first six to eight 28              people remaining in numerical order.

29        The attached voir dire questionnaire shall be given to the venire members and copies 30              of the responses will be made available to counsel at the beginning of voir dire. Counsel shall 31              submit a joint set of additional voir dire questions to be posed by the court. Any voir dire 32              questions on which counsel cannot agree may be submitted separately. Counsel will be 33              permitted brief follow-up voir dire after the court's questioning.

34        The following jury instructions from the Ninth Circuit Manual of Model Jury Instructions
35              Civil (2007 Edition) shall be given absent objection: 1.0 - 1.4, 1.6 - 1.14, 1.18 - 1.19, 3.1 - 3.4.
36        Counsel shall submit a joint set of these instructions along with case specific instructions using 37              the Ninth Circuit Manual where appropriate. Any instructions on which counsel cannot agree 38              may be submitted separately. Each instruction shall be typed in full on a separate page with 39              citations to the authority upon which it is based and a reference to the party submitting it. A 40              second blind copy of each instruction shall also be submitted omitting the citation to authority 41              and the reference to the submitting party, but retaining the title of the instruction.

1           D. TRIAL SCHEDULE

2           The court's trial schedule is 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. with two fifteen-minute breaks, on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

3           E. PROCEDURE FOR AMENDING THIS ORDER

4           No provision of this order may be changed except by written order of this court upon its own motion or upon motion of one or more parties made pursuant to Civil. L. R. 7-11 with a showing of good cause. Parties may file a formal brief, but a letter brief will suffice. The requesting party shall serve the opposing party on the same day the motion is filed and the opposing party shall submit a response as soon as possible but no later than four days after service.

7           If the modification sought is an extension of a deadline contained herein, the motion must be brought before expiration of that deadline. The parties may not modify the pretrial schedule by stipulation. A conflict with a court date set after the date of this order does not constitute good cause. The parties are advised that if they stipulate to a change in the discovery schedule, they do so at their own risk. The only discovery schedule that the court will enforce is the one set in this order.

10          IT IS SO ORDERED.
